

Bible History Puzzle 37

Remember the burning bush? The Lord spoke out of it and He had a message for Moses. First He spoke of Who He was... the God of Abraham, _____, and Jacob. Then He said, "I have heard the cry from the children of Israel. I have seen how they are treated by the Egyptians, and the Egyptians will be punished for that. Now I will do what I have promised, and free them and bring them back to the _____ of Canaan, the land flowing with milk and honey. You need to go to Pharaoh, Moses! You need to tell him to let my _____ go out of Egypt!"

Oh, Moses, must have been so happy, right? Isn't this what he had wanted to do for so many years? But no, now he didn't dare anymore. He would rather stay and work quietly as a shepherd. "Who am I?" said Moses. "I can't free the children of Israel, can I?"

"Oh, but I will help you, Moses. I promise that my people will worship Me here at this mountain."

Still Moses did not want to go. "Nobody will _____ me," he said.

Then the Lord asked, "What do you have in your hand?"

"A staff," Moses answered.

"Throw it on the _____," the Lord commanded.

When Moses threw the staff on the ground, it became a real _____.

"Take it by the tail," God spoke again.

When Moses did, it turned back into a regular _____.

"This is a sign that I have sent you," the Lord said.

Again Moses spoke. "I can't speak well," he argued.

"Who has given you a mouth and _____?" the Lord asked. "Am I not the one who gives you the strength to speak?"

But Moses did not dare to go. "Oh, Lord! Send someone else?"

Then the Lord became angry. "Aaron, your brother, can _____ well," He said. "He will come to you and he will speak for you."

Then Moses did not argue anymore. He willingly went to Jethro to tell him what he needed to do and he left with Zipporah and his sons to go to _____.

On the way he met Aaron. The brothers were happy to see each other after so many years. Aaron also loved the Lord. Together they went to tell the people of Israel the glad news. They were all so glad to hear that the Lord was going to deliver them!

Finally, Aaron and Moses headed for the palace. They brought the Lord's message to him... but oh, no, Pharaoh wasn't happy to hear this message at all. "Why would I let you _____? For who?"

For the God of Israel," Aaron and Moses answered.

"I don't care about the _____ of Israel. No way!" Pharaoh said....

How sad Moses and Aaron must have been! Do you think they thought Pharaoh would listen right away?
