

Bible History Puzzle 40

Unscramble the letters for each blank:

Four plagues... and Pharaoh's heart was harder than ever. He promised the people could go, but he changed his mind and said no. He wanted to keep his slaves!

Again Moses had to go to Pharaoh with the same command, "The _____(rLdo) says, 'Let My people go!'" but he refused and a fifth plague was sent.

The fifth plague was a sickness that killed the animals in Egypt: cattle, donkeys, camels.... They all became very sick and many died. How about the animals in Goshen? Pharaoh sent a servant to find out if the animals there were _____(ksic) too. No, the Lord did not allow the sickness to touch the Israelites' animals. Again, the Bible says that Pharaoh's heart was hard.

The next plague was sent without any warning. God told Moses to take handfuls of ashes and sprinkle them towards heaven. The ashes came back down as terrible boils, or deep sores, all over the Egyptians' bodies. The sores were so terrible that the wise men could not stand in front of Moses and Aaron. Pharaoh still would not listen to _(dGO).

Moses went back to Pharaoh, warning him that if he did not let the people go, hail would come the next day, and he should make sure all the people and animals were inside or they would _____(eid).

Some of Pharaoh's servants believed them and they brought their animals and servants inside the next day. Moses stretched out his rod to heaven and it began to hail and _____(drthneu) and fire even ran along the ground. They had never seen a storm like this before: hail stones breaking down all the crops in the field and killing _____(reevnoye) who was still outside.

Pharaoh quickly called for Moses and Aaron and he said, "I have sinned! Please beg the Lord to take away the thunder and the hail and I ____ (liwl) let you go!"

Moses agreed that he would. As soon as he left the city he stretched out his hands to the Lord and the _____(tsrmo) stopped, but.... Pharaoh broke his promise again.

Moses had to go back to him again and _____(nrwa) him that a plague of locusts would come up if he did not let the people go. Pharaoh then said just the _(nme) could go, but that wasn't what the Lord demanded, so Moses stretched out the _____(dro) and the Lord brought locusts in on the wind and they ate every last green thing left in the land and got into their houses. They were simply everywhere!

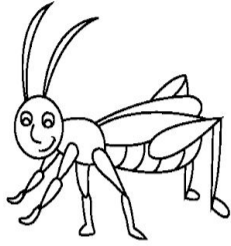

Pharaoh quickly called Moses and Aaron to come again and told them that he had _____(nsdnei) against the Lord and to please take away this awful plague. The Lord sent the locusts away again, but Pharaoh's _____(trahe) was only hardened more.

Then Moses stretched out his hand to heaven and there were three days of thick darkness all over the land of Egypt so that no one could ____ (ese) each other at all and they could not even move because it was so dark. Pharaoh again called Moses and told them to go and serve the Lord but to leave their animals behind. When Moses said that the animals had to go too, the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart again and he told them that he did not want to see them again. Moses agreed that he would not see Pharaoh again because.... The worst _____(lgupae) yet was coming!

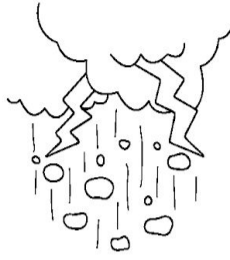

Number the plagues in order!

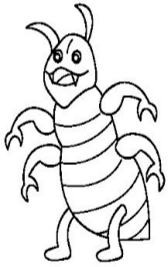

blood

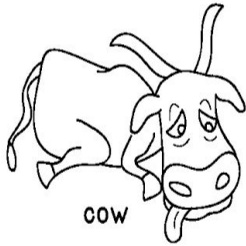

locust

hail lice

cow

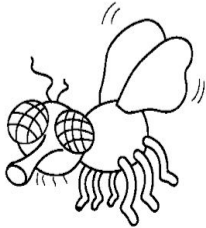

boils

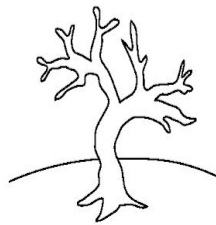

frog

death of firstborn

fly

darkness

Across

- 2. Water was turned into ____
- 5. Land Israelites lived in in Egypt
- 7. Seventh plague
- 9. Moses' brother
- 10. The second plague
- 11. Let my people ____
- 12. Number of plagues God sent

Down

- 1. Fourth plague
- 3. Ninth plague
- 4. Sixth plague
- 6. King of Egypt
- 8. Eighth plague

