

Begin the year with pious and personal dedication, and say, with David, "Lord, I am Thine, save me." Through Him Who is the way, yield yourselves unto God. It is your reasonable service. He has infinite claims to you. You will never be truly your own till you are His.

Begin the year with relative religion; and if the worship of God has never been established in your family, now commence it, and say, with Joshua, "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." A family without prayer is like a house without a roof. It is uncovered and exposed; and we know Who has threatened to pour out His fury upon families that call not upon His Name.

Begin the year with fresh concern to be useful, and ask, with Saul of Tarsus, "Lord, what wilt Thou have me to do?" Let me look at my condition, my resources, my opportunities. How can I glorify God and promote the welfare of my fellow-creatures? Is there not a Bible to circulate? Are there not missionaries to support? Are there none perishing for lack of knowledge that I can myself instruct? Have I no irreligious neighbors to reclaim? Are there no poor to relieve? No widows and fatherless to visit? ~Rev. William Jay
