Remember in Prayer:

- The Girton family who lost their dear husband and father last week. (The Lord preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.146:9)
- Our widows, widowers and lonely ones, the unborn, prodigal sons and daughters, those undergoing treatments, and all those with hidden crosses. ("He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer." Psalms 102:17)

Meditation:

A LITTLE while and He will say,

Arise My love, and come away;

We at His bidding shall arise

To join Him in the open skies.

A little while, how sweet 'twill be

From every form of evil free,

With all the ransomed saints to raise

Our songs to Him through endless days.

A little while and we shall rest,

Reposing on His loving breast,

All taint of sin shall be removed,

And we shall dwell with God's Beloved.

A little while and we shall trace,

Heaven's glory light upon His face,

And dwell with Him in scenes of light,

Himself our whole, our pure delight.

A little while, blest Saviour, come,

We long to be with Thee at home,

With spirit, soul and body free

To praise throughout eternity.
